THE OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE BELTED GALLOWAY SOCIETY, INC.

It only takes one person to make a difference!

President Mark Keller

We just returned from Camp Hope and The John Romine Memorial Show in Joliet, IL and the question again that I am often asked came to mind ... why do we show? Today I can answer that question, and I hope I can explain it to you. The facility was second to none, the planning was excellent by all involved, the meals were farm gourmet, and the emphasis was ... kids first.

The things that I just mentioned were all very well done and the sign of a great group of people. The part that tugged on my heart started Sunday morning with a devotional given by Chuck McCullough (IA) (our fitting instructor) encouraging us to treat others as we wish to be treated. As I watched the rush on show day, I saw a young man that grew up in the BYG giving back to our youth. Hats off to Ross Fogle (IL)! The day continued on with little kids gathering up their animals for their first show and everyone that was available giving a helping hand. My entire experience was topped off by being blessed enough to see little Doug Abney's face when the judge picked him for junior showman. Absolutely Priceless!!!

There were not many dry eyes or softer hearts as we all listened to Carol and Amy Romine (IN) speak about stem cell research saving lives. They demonstrated how easy it is to become a member of the stem cell/national registry. Their family mission is to make everyone aware of this easy procedure and encourage everyone to be a donor. If you are interested please write or call Carol <RomineTreeFarms@comcast.net> or (812) 546-5587.

After the show not one family left, everyone helped each other pack up their gear and cattle. With the cattle all loaded, the whole group put all the facility show and stalling panels away. So now you know, it's not the thrill of victory or the agony of defeat. It is the people and the friendships that matter in everything you do. A quote from my friend John Romine, "It only takes one person to make a difference". I am proud to say that this weekend I was with a group of people that made a difference. This is a group of people that I am truly happy to call my friends.

I would like to encourage you to make a difference in your local Belted Galloway group or just give someone a helping hand that you know needs it.

Council nominations

Vic Eggleston, Immediate Past President

On behalf of the Nominating Committee, we are introducing a talented list of candidates who are willing to serve the BGS membership. These individuals possess a desire to guarantee that our organization operates efficiently. Council members work on a volunteer basis and we are very thankful for their readiness to volunteer.

Regular and Lifetime members are eligible to vote either by mail prior to the deadline set forth on the ballot or in person at the Annual General Meeting. Each membership number is allowed one (1) vote and we are publishing nominations again in August to encourage the membership to vote. A ballot is provided below.

Leanne Fogle (IL) grew up on a dairy farm in central Illinois. She and her husband, David, have maintained a beef herd for 25 years. They moved to the Congerville farm in 1986 and began building fence over the portions of the land that had zero profitability. In 1997, Belted Galloway cattle were purchased and they found the cattle were not only excellent grazers, but went to work cleaning out the underbrush and flora of the farm's timber. The farm sells breeding stock/semen, and supplies feeders to a Beltie beef feedlot. She is a member of the Great Lakes Belted Galloway Association, has participated in regional and national shows/sales, and has done breed promotion at the Illinois Beef Expo. Leanne is a radiographer at Illinois State University. She is the former editor and recording secretary for the Great Lakes Belted Galloway Association. Since 2001, she has held the position of editor of the U.S. Beltie News. Leanne is currently serving on the Annual meeting, Newsletter, Advertising, and Show committees.

Jerry Moore (KY) and his wife, Jennifer, live in south central Kentucky in the small town of Smith's Grove. The Moores purchased their first Belted Galloway in 1992 and began showing in 1999. Their cattle have appeared in shows across the country. Jerry was the past herd superintendent at the Georgia National Fair. The family strives for breed preservation, maintaining high quality animals. On their farm, they also raise alfalfa, grass hay, tobacco, and sweet corn. Jerry is a high school social studies teacher and coach. He enjoys his teaching career and raising Belted Galloway cattle.

Loren Olson, MD (IA) has been involved with Belties since 1995. Loren is a strong proponent of grassfed Beltie beef. Loren served as President of the Great Plains Belted Galloway Association and also served as the editor of that regional group's newsletter. He was the driving force behind the first Belted Galloway Bull Performance Test held at Guthrie Center, IA in 2000, and conducted his second forage-based bull test utilizing forage based feeding programs. Loren has previously served on Council for a number of terms serving as Chairman of the Newsletter and Marketing Committees. He currently is the Long Range Planning and Newsletter Chairman. He conducted extensive studies on The Belted Galloway Foundation's Rose Herd project, focusing on the identification of bloodlines most suitable for the production of quality, grass-fed beef. His cattle were featured on RFD

TV Living the Country Life. He currently serves on The Belted Galloway Foundation.

Kris von Dohrmann (NH) grew up in a very small town in northern New Hampshire. Kris raised horses until 1995 when she got involved with Belted Galloway cattle at East View farm in Vermont. With an active 4-H club and up to 100 head of Belties, the farm showed, and sold animals across the country. In 2002, the herd was sold and Kris relocated back to her own farm in New Hampshire. In 2003, Kris' Otokahe Farm became a reality. Kris and husband, Bert, have a herd which has grown to 20 head, selling breeding stock, freezer beef and mentoring new Beltie enthusiasts. The latest project is the development and marketing of "Belted Beef Jerky" which will be on the market regionally in the summer of 2009. Kris' secondary education is in forest management and business. She is employed by the state of New Hampshire Forest Protection as a forest fire lookout tower watchman and as secretary to North Region Headquarters. Kris is a retired 4-H leader, certified by the National Serve Safe Food Safety Network for safe food handling, and member of New England Galloway Group, supporting their heifer project and sales. Kris currently serves as a member of the Chatfield Scholarship Committee.

About advertising ... Classified ads are free to members and must reach the Society office before the last day of each month. All classified ads are automatically placed on the Hotline on the internet. Two-month limit on classified insertions. Please include contact information as you wish it to appear — name, farm, location, phone, Fax and Email, if any. Please Phone to (717) 677-9655 or beltie-cows@aol.com. We encourage members to submit ads the last two weeks of the month.

Advertising bulls ... It is required that registration numbers be included on bulls advertised for sale in the Hotline and newsletter.

Ballot

VOTE FOR FOUR (3) candidates for 2-year terms on the Belted Galloway Society's Council and (1) candidate for 1-year term. Additional names may be written in if you wish. The Ballot (or a clear photocopy) must be mailed to the office postmarked September 1 or earlier in an envelope marked "Ballot," may be faxed by September 1, or submitted at the Annual General Meeting at Flagstaff, AZ.

Camp Hope and The John Romine Memorial Show

Ross Fogle, Camp Hope

It was a privilege to be part of Camp Hope and the John Romine Memorial Show in Joliet, IL to honor John Mark Romine of Hope, Indiana. John was a young man who raised Belted Galloway cattle and began showing Belties at age 11. He showed at many national shows and went to all 3 camps at the UT Martin. It is a known fact that John was a hard-working individual who did all the work associated with caring for and showing his cattle. He was an 11-year member of the Beltie Youth Group Area 5.

My most profound personal realization about John's character happened near his time of passing. His mother, Carol, emailed us that his doctors had exhausted all methods of treatment to fight the lymphoma that had invaded his body. Their recommendation was that they should stop treatment. John got mad and told everyone that he would not stop. You see, that is true grit ... to never give up hope.

Many people came together to make the camp a reality. Special thanks to The Belted Galloway Foundation Inc. for funding the educational portion of the event. Area 5 BYG leader, Kathi Jurkowski (IL) hired Chuck McCullough (IA) and converted her home office into Camp Hope Central for the past 6 months. She and Area 5 Leader, Lisa Lovett (IL), made trips to visit me at Joliet, IL so that we could discuss the layout of the facility and make additional plans. The Terry Willis family brought equipment and cattle for all to use at the event. Many farms donated cash, food, equipment and their time! Each camper received a bucket of supplies to care for their animals during camp. It was fun to see the excitement on their faces when they were given their supplies, scotch comb and a new show stick..

Forty-three head of cattle, 18 farms, and 7 states were represented at Camp Hope. Twenty-one junior campers with fifty people total were there for the weekend. We had several boys between the ages of 8-13, so we had a lot of energy at Camp Hope. The Wahl

Clipper trailer came for the event, allowing everyone to see the display and demonstration of different types of blades and clippers used for Belted Galloway cattle.

It was fun to see the little ones (and the young at heart) working on their calves. I stopped and reflected, watching families working together. But more importantly, remembering a few years ago, John and Amy Romine working on their calf ... and it truly was a moment of serendipity.

MISSOURI. HEIFERS AND BULL CALVES: Bear Creek Mae West 30306B, 9/25/08, fast gaining, full bodied, well balanced heifer out of one of our larger cows, Klover Komers Nina. Bear Creek Marilyn Monroe 30308B, 10/8/08, out of CCF Lisa. We like the conformation and disposition of this line. Bear Creek Julie Andrews, 8/26/08, out of Ridgeview Juliana—who is our all time favorite cow. Bear Creek Marshall Dillon 11785B, 9/10/08, very deep and thick, an exceptionally fast gainer with correct conformation, out of Schmidt Acres Nettie. All perfectly marked, sired by our champion bull, Oak Valley Lone Ranger. Mary Sapp, 573 442-6230 or email sappml@umsystem.edu. 7/21
